IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
SECOND APPEAL NO.541 OF 2002.

Kailas Narayandas Raval ..Appellants

Versus

Amritlal Narayandas Raval ..Respondent

Smt.Kiran Bagaliya for the appellants

Mr.J.M.D'Silva for the respondents

CORAM: S.R.SATHE, J.

DATE : 21st JUNE, 2005

P.C.

1. Heard Smt. Bangalia, Advocate for the Applicant as well as Advocate Shri D'Silva for the Respondent. It has been brought to the notice of the Court that in pursuance of the direction and the observations made by the First Appellate Court, the Respondent herein has in fact filed a suit for partition bearing No.135 of 203 in the Court of Civil Judge, Senior Division, Nasik, and statusquo order has been passed in the said suit. The learned Advocate for the Respondent also submits that the Respondent is ready to maintain status quo in respect of the possession of the Appellant Kailash in respect of the suit shop. In view of the above, no further substantial question of law is involved and parties agreed to dispose of the Second Appeal. Hence the appeal is dismissed accordingly.